

Day 24: Data Modeling and Relationships

Classroom Note: In this session, we learned about data modeling in Power BI. The teacher explained how to create relationships between tables using primary and foreign keys. We also explored the Model View to understand how tables are connected.

Topics Covered:

Introduction to data modeling

Creating relationships between tables

Understanding Model View